Notes:

- The Gulls have won 16 of their last 19 games (16-2-1), including six straight at home. San Diego shut out Bakersfield on Feb. 12, the third time they have blanked an opponent in the last seven games. The Gulls have the third-best points percentage (.659) and have allowed the second-fewest goals (112) among Western Conference teams.
- Kalle Kossila recorded his 10th multi-point game of the season (0-2=2), his fifth multi-assist game, against Bakersfield on Feb. 12. Kossila has recorded an assist in five of his last nine games and has 5-15=20 points in his last 20 games. He ranks third in the AHL in plus/minus (+23), and tied for second in assists (24) and tied for fourth in scoring (34) among AHL rookies.
- Rookie Kevin Roy earned assists in back-to-back games over the weekend and followed up with two assists against Iowa on Tuesday night, his third multi-assist game of the season. Roy has five assists in his last five contests.
- Nick Sorensen recorded his second multi-assist game of the season against Iowa on Tuesday and has points in three straight games (1-3=4).
- Nicolas Kerdiles recorded his first multi-assist game of the season (0-2=2) against Bakerfield on Sunday and has assists in three consecutive contests (0-4=4). Kerdiles has 1-4=5 points in eight games since making his season debut on Jan. 28.
- Jhonas Enroth is now 10-1-0 in 10 starts since joining San Diego, allowing two goals or fewer in 10 of those 11 games. Enroth leads all AHL goaltenders in GAA (1.57) and ranks second in SV% (.941).
- Dustin Tokarski returned from injury to make his first start since Dec. 26, recording his first shutout of the season as he stopped all 22 shots he faced against Bakersfield.

Notes:

- Sam Steel recorded his 100th point of the season on Feb. 14 against Everett (0-1=1), becoming the first player in the CHL to hit the century mark in scoring this season. Steel has 2-8=10 points in his last five games, which includes a four-point night (2-2=4) and the game-winning goal against Calgary on Feb. 8. Steel's point streak now sits at nine games (3-12=15). He leads the entire CHL in scoring (103) and co-leads in points per game (2.08; min. 20 games). He also leads the WHL in even-strength points (61) and has factored into 36% of Regina's goals this season, which ranks eighth among WHL skaters. Steel has recorded a point in all but seven games this season and has recorded multiple points in all but 16 games.
- Julius Nattinen leads Windsor in FO% (55.6%) and has won 50% or more of his faceoffs in eight consecutive games, posting a 63% win percentage during that stretch.
- Josh Mahura ranks sixth in goals (13) and fourth in PPG (8) among WHL defensemen.
- Deven Sideroff recorded 1-2=3 points in three games last week, giving him 7-11=18 points in his last 14 games. Sideroff has recorded a point in 34 games this season, in 22 of which he has recorded multiple points. He leads Kamloops in scoring and ranks tied for second in the CHL in GWG (9).
- Jack Kopacka has earned 2-3=5 points in four games over the last week, pushing his point streak to seven games (6-4=10). Kopacka has 19-10=29 points in his last 28 games.
- Tyler Soy earned 1-2=3 points in three games last week and recorded a career-high 12-game point streak (8-14=22) from Jan. 14 to Feb. 10. Soy had four power-play goals, two game-winning goals and one shorthanded goal during his point streak.
- Alex Dostie recorded a six-game point streak (3-7=10) from Jan. 31 to Feb. 11, which also included a four-game multi-point streak (3-5=8), Feb. 2-10.
