A first round pick of the Rangers in 2009, Chris Kreider’s blend of strength and speed makes him a dynamic force for the Rangers at the forward position. Since his first full season with the team in 2013-14, Kreider leads the Blueshirts in goals (141) and PPG (41), and ranks 2nd in points (289). A respected voice in the locker room, Kreider has served as an alternate captain since 2018-19.

ONE TIMERS

Nickname: Kreidsdale
What he’d be doing if not playing hockey: NYR public relations employee
Actor that would play him in a movie: Michael Cera (because he’s awkward)
Collects: Goaltenders’ souls
Most listened to artists: Ed Sheeran, Passenger
Funniest Ranger: Marc Staal
Cartoon characters: Tom and Jerry
Animal his teammates would compare him to: Gorilla
Athletes he’d like to practice with: Odell Beckham and Jalen Ramsey

POWER AND SKILL

Kreider is 1 of 2 NHL players to register at least 120 goals, 250 points, 330 PIM and a plus-40 rating since 2014-15 (Brad Marchand).

- Named the Rangers nominee for the 2017-18 Bill Masterton Memorial Trophy, an annual award given to the NHL player who best exemplifies the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey
- Kreider ranks 2nd in franchise history with six playoff game-winning goals, and ranks 7th with 23 playoff goals
- Parents are Dave and Kathy. Also has a sister, Katie
- Was bestowed with the Distinguished Alumni Award of the Woods College of Advancing Studies on Boston College's campus in April of 2018. The award is given annually to a notable Woods College graduate who "embodies the Jesuit ideals of men and women for others, who pursues the greater good in all things and exemplifies care for the whole person"
- Known for his intense training regimens, Kreider was featured in the August 2014 issue of Men’s Journal on his lower-body workout, which enables him to jump out of a pool with no hands
- An avid reader, four of his favorite books are “Talent is Overrated” by Geoff Colvin, “The Baron in the Trees” by Italo Calvino, “Never Let Go” by Dan John, and “For Whom The Bell Tolls” by Ernest Hemingway
- Plays the guitar and saxophone
- His first job was working as a caddy
- Played soccer and lacrosse in high school, in addition to hockey
- The Massachusetts-born Kreider is fluent in English, Russian and Spanish. He took both Russian and Spanish classes in high school.
Is the only hockey player to ever win a World Junior Championship gold medal, Collegiate Conference Playoff Championship and NCAA Championship in a single season (2009-10). Also won a second NCAA Championship with Boston College in 2011-12.

Since his first full season in 2013-14, Kreider leads the Rangers in goals (141) and PPG (41), ranks 2nd in points (289) and PPP (70), t-2nd in assists (148), and 3rd in plus/minus (+60).

The Rangers have amassed a 117-47-21 record in the last 185 games in which Kreider has registered a point (.689 pts %), including a 11-6-1 record (.618 pts %) in 2019-20.

NHL LEADERS IN GOALS ON TIPPED SHOTS SINCE 2015-16

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Player</th>
<th>Goals</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Chris Kreider</td>
<td>30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Anders Lee</td>
<td>30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Patric Hornqvist</td>
<td>26</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Joe Pavelski</td>
<td>25</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Brendan Gallagher</td>
<td>24</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sidney Crosby</td>
<td>22</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Matthew Tkachuk</td>
<td>22</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sidney Crosby</td>
<td>22</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Matthew Tkachuk</td>
<td>22</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>