1966: L.A. KINGS EXPANSION

On February 9, 1966, the NHL Board of Governors approved the expansion of six franchises for the 1967-68 season. Canadian entrepreneur Jack Kent Cooke paid the league two million dollars to place one of the six teams in Los Angeles. Following a fan contest to name the team, Cooke chose the name ‘Kings’ and picked the original team colors of purple and gold. The Los Angeles Kings were officially born.

1967: KINGS’ FIRST GAME

The Kings played their first NHL game on October 14, 1967. In front of 7,023 fans, the Kings battled another expansion team, the Philadelphia Flyers, at the Long Beach Arena. Brian Kilrea scored the Kings’ first goal in franchise history and goalie Wayne Rutledge helped propel the Kings to a 4-2 victory. The Kings played at the Long Beach Arena five more times, compiling a 3-3 record in their temporary home.
1967: THE FABULOUS FORUM

On December 30, 1967, the Kings played their first game at the Forum in Inglewood. After not being able to strike a deal to play long-term at the Los Angeles Sports Arena, Jack Kent Cook said: "I am going to build my own arena!" for 16 million dollars. Cooke built what would be called 'The Fabulous Forum' where the Kings played for the next 32 years.

1968: FIRST PLAYOFF GAME

The Kings finished second in the West Division with a record of 31-33-10 during their expansion season. On April 4, 1968, the Kings played their first Stanley Cup playoff game against the Minnesota North Stars at the Forum. Defenseman Bill White's third period goal proved to be the difference as the Kings won the contest 2-1. The team ultimately fell in Game 7 of the series to end a memorable first season in the NHL.
1971: WELCOME ROGIE VACHON

In a blockbuster trade with the Montreal Canadiens, goaltender Rogie Vachon became a King on November 4, 1971. In exchange for the all-star goalie, the Kings traded Dale Hoganson, Dennis Dejordy, Noel Price and Doug Robinson. In the years following this trade, the Kings continued to improve, culminating in a return to the playoffs in 1974.

1973: THE VOICE BEGINS

On October 10, 1973, Bob Miller began his distinguished career as the play-by-play voice of the Kings. Hailing from Chicago, Miller’s first game on the mic came against the Black Hawks as they defeated the Kings 3-0. More than 40 years later, the Hockey Hall of Fame recipient is still the TV play-by-play announcer for the Kings. Since 1990, Miller has called games alongside analyst and former King, Jim Fox. From record-setting performances, to Stanley Cup championship calls, Bob Miller will always be known as the voice of the Kings.
GREATEST MOMENTS #LAKINGS50

1975: SELECTING DAVE TAYLOR

During the 1975 NHL amateur draft held in Montreal, the Kings used their 210th overall selection in the 15th round to draft Dave Taylor. The four-time NHL all-star would play his entire 17-year career with the Los Angeles Kings, totaling more than 1,000 career points in a franchise record 1,111 games played. Taylor’s best years came as a member of the ‘triple crown line’ playing alongside Marcel Dionne and Charlie Simmer. Taylor would serve as team captain for four seasons from 1985-89. To this day, Taylor holds the record for most games played in a Kings uniform, and his number 18 will forever hang in the rafters.

1975: MARCEL JOINS THE KINGS

On June 23, 1975, the Kings acquired Marcel Dionne from the Detroit Red Wings for Terry Harper, Dan Maloney and a draft pick. At $300,000 per year, Dionne signed the richest contract in the NHL and became the Kings franchise player. He spent 12 seasons with the club, taking them to the playoffs eight of those years. Dionne holds the record for most points in franchise history with 1,307 and his number 16 was retired by the club in 1990. He was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1992.
1976: GORING’S GOAL

At 18:28 of overtime in game 6 against Boston on April 22, 1976, Butch Goring scored his second overtime goal of the conference quarterfinals. The goal gave the Kings the 4-3 victory, forcing a game 7 at the Garden. The team carried Goring off the ice on their shoulders during the memorable overtime winner. While the Kings lost that series three days later, Goring would enjoy 10-plus seasons with Los Angeles, including earning the Masterton Trophy and the Lady Byng Trophy in 1978.

1979: TRIPLE CROWN LINE

Just two days after being recalled from AHL Springfield, Charlie Simmer joined Marcel Dionne and Dave Taylor to form a line on January 13, 1979. In that game, Dionne scored four goals to help the Kings to a 7-3 victory over Detroit as the famous ‘Triple Crown Line’ was born. The three were a perfect fit: the gritty Simmer, the hard-hitting Taylor and natural scorer in Dionne would go on to become one of the highest-scoring line combinations in NHL history.
1980: CAREER YEAR FOR DIONNE

On April 5, 1980, Marcel Dionne recorded two assists against the Vancouver Canucks to win his only scoring title of his career. Dionne finished with 53 goals and 137 points, earning the Art Ross Trophy. Edmonton’s Wayne Gretzky also finished with 137 points, but scored two fewer goals than Dionne. That same season, Dionne would also win his second Lester Pearson Award (now called the Ted Lindsay Award), which is given to the most outstanding player in the regular season. Dionne was the first to record 100 points in a season in Kings history. In his 12 seasons with the Kings, Dionne eclipsed 100 points seven times. He also was the first player in NHL history to score 40-plus goals in a season 10 different times. Dionne retired after 18 seasons with 731 goals, ranking fifth all-time.

1981: TRIPLE CROWN ALL-STAR GAME

The Fabulous Forum hosted Los Angeles’ first All-Star Game on February 10, 1981. Hometown fans were treated to the entire ‘Triple Crown Line’ starting together for the Wales conference. Backing up in net was club goalie Mario Lessard. The Campbell Conference won the contest 4-1. Later that season, the Triple Crown Line became the first in NHL history to have all three members record over 100 points each. The Kings wouldn’t host another All-Star Game until 2002 at Staples Center.
1981: FIRST GAME FOR NICK

On November 18, 1981, Nick Nickson began his career with the Kings as a color commentator alongside Bob Miller calling games simulcast on TV and radio. In his first game with Miller, the Kings beat Detroit as Marcel Dionne scored four goals. In 1990, Nickson became the Kings radio play-by-play announcer. In 2015, Nickson was honored by the Hockey Hall of Fame.

1982: MIRACLE ON MANCHESTER

On April 10, 1982, the Kings completed the largest comeback in NHL playoff history in front of their home fans at the Forum. Down 5-0 against the heavily favored Edmonton Oilers, the Kings scored all five of their goals in the third period to force overtime, where Daryl Evans scored the goal to complete the comeback. The instant classic was named ‘The Miracle on Manchester,’ giving the Kings the 2-1 lead in the best of 5 series. Two games later, the Kings beat the Gretzky-led Oilers in game 5 to advance to the next round.

1984: ROBITAILLE DRAFTED

ON JUNE 9, 1984 IN HIS HOMETOWN OF MONTREAL, QUEBEC, LUC ROBITAILLE WAS DRAFTED 171ST OVERALL IN THE NINTH ROUND BY THE KINGS. DURING THAT SAME DRAFT, THE KINGS SELECTED FUTURE BASEBALL HALL OF FAMER TOM GLAVINE IN THE FOURTH ROUND, MORE THAN ONE HUNDRED SPOTS AHEAD OF ROBITAILLE. “LUCKY” WOULD GO ON TO HAVE A HALL OF FAME CAREER. HE IS CURRENTLY THE NHL’S ALL-TIME HIGHEST SCORING LEFT WINGER.

1988: THE TRADE

In one of the biggest trades in sports history, Wayne Gretzky joined the Kings on August 9, 1988. The Kings traded Jimmy Carson, Martin Gelinas, three first round picks and $15 million for Gretzky, Marty McSorley and Mike Krushelnyski. Canadians were so upset that New Democratic Party House Leader Nelson Riis demanded the government block the trade. Gretzky would go on to play eight seasons with the Kings, setting countless franchise and league records.

1989: NICHOLLS SCORES 70

During the second-to-last game of the season, Bernie Nicholls recorded a hat trick in a 6-4 victory over the Vancouver Canucks on April 1, 1989. The hat trick gave Nicholls 70 goals on the season, a Kings single-season record, and 300 in his career. He would finish the best season of his career with 150 points, including an eight-point performance against the Toronto Maple Leafs earlier in the season. That effort is still the Kings single-game record to this day.
1989: GRETZKY WINS THE HART

Following the 1988-89 season, Wayne Gretzky became the only King to ever win the Hart Memorial Trophy as the NHL's Most Valuable Player. That season, Gretzky recorded 168 points in 78 games played to set the Kings single-season record. The Great One's 114 assists tied Mario Lemieux for the league lead. Statistically, this would be the most productive season for Gretzky in a Kings uniform.

1989: GREAT ONE BECOMES GREATEST OF THEM ALL

On October 15, 1989, Wayne Gretzky made history. In the first period against his former team, Gretzky's assist on Bernie Nicholls' goal gave him career point 1,850, tying Gordie Howe's record. With the Kings trailing in the final minute of the game, the Great One's game-tying goal made him the NHL's all-time leading scorer. No. 99 would score again in overtime to give the Kings a memorable 5-4 win in Edmonton.
1990: HAT TRICKS!

HISTORY WAS MADE ON APRIL 10, 1990 WHEN THREE KINGS REGISTERED HAT TRICKS IN A 12-4 BLOWOUT AGAINST THE CALGARY FLAMES IN GAME 4 OF THE SMYTHE DIVISION SEMIFINAL. DAVE TAYLOR, TONY GRANATO AND TOMAS SANDSTROM ALL RECORDED THREE GOALS. WITH NEARLY A PERFECT SHOOTING PERCENTAGE, THE NINE GOALS CAME ON 10 SHOTS AMONG THE THREE PLAYERS. THE KINGS WOULD DEFEAT THE FLAMES IN SIX GAMES AND FACE THE EDMONTON OILERS IN THE DIVISION FINALS.

1992: KURRI REACHES 500

JARI KURRI BECAME THE FIRST EUROPEAN HOCKEY PLAYER TO RECORD 500 CAREER GOALS ON OCTOBER 17, 1992. WITH LESS THAN A MINUTE REMAINING IN A HIGH SCORING GAME AGAINST THE BOSTON BRUINS, KURRI ICED THE GAME WITH AN EMPTY NET GOAL TO GIVE HIM THE MILESTONE. HE WOULD END HIS CAREER WITH 601 GOALS RANKING 19TH ALL TIME. IN THEIR STORIED HISTORY, THE KINGS HAVE HAD THREE PLAYERS SCORE THEIR 500TH GOAL WHILE WEARING A KINGS JERSEY (KURRI, LUC ROBITAILLE AND MARCEL DIONNE).

1993: ROBITAILLE’S DOMINANT SEASON

IN HIS MOST DOMINANT SEASON IN THE NHL, ROBITAILLE SET THE RECORD FOR MOST POINTS IN A SEASON BY A LEFT WINGER ON APRIL 15, 1993. IN THE FINAL GAME OF THE REGULAR SEASON, ROBITAILLERecorded a goal and three assists finishing with 125 points, surpassing KEVIN STEVENS’ PREVIOUS RECORD OF 123 POINTS. THAT SEASON, ROBITAILLE LED ALL SCORERS ON THE KINGS RECORDING 63 GOALS AND 62 ASSISTS. THE RECORD STILL STANDS TODAY.

1993: GRETZKY’S GAME 7

On May 29, 1993, Wayne Gretzky took over Game 7 of the Conference Finals against the Toronto Maple Leafs. The Great One recorded his record-setting eighth career playoff hat trick and added an assist, leading the Kings to a 5-4 victory to win the Clarence S. Campbell Bowl and sending L.A. to their first-ever Stanley Cup Final. Gretzky would end the 1993 playoffs with 15 goals, 25 assists and 40 points to lead all Kings and NHL scorers. He still holds the Kings record for goals, assists and points in a single postseason.

1993: STANLEY CUP FINAL WIN

On June 1, 1993, the Kings earned their first Stanley Cup final victory. The stars shined for L.A. as Wayne Gretzky scored a goal and added three assists, while Luc Robitaille netted two power play goals. Kelly Hrudey backstopped the win recording 31 saves. The King would beat Montreal 4-1 that night on the road, but ultimately would lose the next four games to lose the final series 4-1.

Special appearances by distinguished former Kings players take center stage in downtown Los Angeles; Heritage plays significant role during franchise’s 50th anniversary celebration

DAY ONE: TRAVEL AND WELCOME

As part of the Kings continuing to celebrate their 50th Anniversary, the organization welcomed back Original Kings from the 1967-68 season as part of the Kings’ home opener at STAPLES Center, along with seven legendary players to help highlight our 50th Anniversary Season Opening Weekend.

On October 13 close to 20 former members of the Kings organization traveled to Los Angeles. Among the participants were 13 players who played in the team’s very first season — Bryan Campbell, Jacques Caron, Mike Corrigan, Brent Hughes, Howie Hughes, Ted Irvine, Larry Johnston, Brian Kilrea, Jacques Lemieux, Lowell MacDonald, Howie Menard, Poul Popiel and Bob Wall, the first captain of the Kings — the club’s Original Broadcaster (from 1967-72) Jiggs McDonald and John Cooke, the son of late Kings original owner Jack Kent Cooke. Each received Kings merchandise bags with their name on them.

As part of the evening, all the participants — including Triple Crown Line members Dave Taylor, Marcel Dionne and Charlie Simmer — enjoyed a kick-off dinner hosted by Luc Robitaille, while former teammates got reacquainted.

Marcel Dionne greets his many former friends and teammates.

Ted Irvine is surprised to see the welcoming party at the Delta Airlines terminal including the Kings Ice Crew as Kings Production staff film the moment.

DAY ONE:

Mike Corrigan along with his son Sean was the first player to arrive at the hotel. Howie Hughes is greeted at LAX.

Marcel Dionne chats with Luc Robitaille after dinner. All guests received Team LA Store merchandise bags including special pins for the former players.

DAY TWO: GAME DAY

With all the alums in town, the Kings that morning announced the 1967-68 Kings would grace STAPLES Center ice alongside Hall of Famers Wayne Gretzky, Robitaille, Rob Blake and Rogie Vachon. In addition, the famed Triple Crown Line of Simmer, Dionne and Taylor agreed to lace up the skates and be introduced as a unit similar to that moment in 1981 at the NHL All-Star Game in Los Angeles. Before all the festivities, however, the Original Kings — some of whom had not seen each other in close to 50 years — enjoyed a team breakfast, a visit to the Team LA Store and they participated in a group interview with the Kings Production staff. From there the 13 former players and McDonald entered STAPLES Center for the first time. The alums and their guests proceeded into the Kings locker room, where they were surprised to see purple (Forum Blue) jerseys with their names on them hanging in the player stalls along with placards above the stalls with their names on them.
OPENING WEEKEND #LAKINGS50

DAY TWO:

Everybody took numerous photos and then the group assembled for a team photo in the Kings locker room, replicating the photo they took nearly 50 years ago.

The group returned to STAPLES Center before the game and interacted with the Hall of Famers before lining up for pregame introductions. Once the pregame festivities were over – McDonald and Bob Miller introduced all of the participants one at a time -- the Legends took three group shots: One photo of the six Kings who have their jerseys retired, and two different group shots of the Triple Crown Line members, in two different sets of sweaters.

During the game, the alums enjoyed the contest as a group from one of the newly-renovated luxury suites.

No rest for the weary. A long day kicked-off with a city bus tour that made three stops.

The first stop was in Inglewood where the former players visited the Forum, the club’s original full-time home. From there it was off to Manhattan Beach, for photos on the pier and then on the sand with the Pacific Ocean as the backdrop. The final stop before returning to the team hotel was the Toyota Sports Center as our guests toured the state-of-the-art facility and watched the Kings take the ice for practice.

After a break the group met in the hotel where the ex-players wore black suits and their spouses wore gowns. As a group they attended the 2016 Children’s Hospital Los Angeles ‘Once Upon a Time’ Gala at L.A. LIVE as did Simmer and Dionne and the current Kings roster, coaching staff, broadcasters and staff.

At the event the Kings were honored with the Courage to Care award and while the award was being accepted, 50 Years of LA Kings Hockey was represented on stage while both groups of current and former players mingled. Katy Perry performed to conclude the evening.

At the end of the black-tie party the reunion was officially over. Everyone left that next day, returning home to all parts of North America including Seattle, Detroit, Winnipeg, Montreal and Miami.

1967-68 Kings who were unable to attend: Head Coach Leonard “Red” Kelly (who supplied a video message), Terry Gray, Bill Inglis, Gord Labossiere, Jim Murray, Doug Robinson, Dale Rolfe, Bill White and Eddie Joyal. Some of these men attended Kings road games this season as our special guests.

1967-68 Kings who are no longer with us: Owner Jack Kent Cooke, General Manager Larry Regan, Dave Amadio, Jim Anderson, Bill Flett, Mike Corbett, Real Lemieux, Wayne Rutledge, Terry Sawchuk, Brian Smith, and trainers Norm Mackie and Danny Wood.

In the U.S., 11 million K-12 students live in poverty, so it can be hard for them to succeed in school and therefore hard for them to achieve a lifetime of success. But by placing site coordinators inside public schools – to assess their needs and mobilize community resources around their needs – Communities In Schools helps at-risk kids succeed. We show students that completing every grade and completing high school is well within reach. We are the only organization proven to increase graduation rates...now it’s 93%. Every year we help 1.5 million kids to a bright future. When they succeed, we all do.

The money we raise will help JDRF fund critical research to progressively remove the impact of T1D from people’s lives until no one has to fear developing this disease.

Type 1 diabetes is a life-threatening autoimmune disease in which a person’s pancreas stops producing insulin—a hormone essential to the ability to get energy from food. It strikes children and adults suddenly, and changes life as they know it forever. It cannot be prevented, and there is no cure.

The Kings retired Wayne Gretzky’s number 99 to the rafters of Staples Center during the season opener against the Phoenix Coyotes on October 9, 2002. During the ceremony, NHL Commissioner Gary Bettman said: “There will never be another Wayne Gretzky ... you can’t say enough about his impact.” For his contributions to the game, Gretzky’s iconic number was retired league-wide, making him the first and last to ever wear number 99 in the National Hockey League.

A ZIP CODE SHOULD NOT DETERMINE A CHILD’S FUTURE.

Many variables can shape a child’s outcome in life—like the zip code where a child grows up. That’s because not all neighborhoods have the same opportunities and resources, such as quality schools, transportation, housing, healthcare, food and jobs. The good news is that there are many ways to improve our communities so that everyone has a fair chance to succeed, regardless of zip code. You can play a vital role in your local community.

2010: Doughty Wins Gold/Kings in the Olympics

Drew Doughty became the first player in franchise history to win a gold medal at the Olympics on February 28, 2010. Despite only being 20 years old, Doughty played an integral part in Team Canada’s gold medal run at the 2010 Vancouver Games. In 2014, Doughty became an assistant captain and joined fellow teammate Jeff Carter on the Canadian national team for the Sochi Olympics. The duo helped Canada bring home its second consecutive gold medal. Since the Olympics first allowed NHL players to participate, a total of 22 Kings have represented their countries at the Games and have been a part of six medal-winning teams.

2008: Doughty Drafted No. 2 Overall

On June 20, 2008, the Kings, holding their highest draft pick since 1986, selected Drew Doughty number two overall in Ottawa. The defenseman would immediately make the jump to the NHL at 18 years old and earn all-rookie honors. Doughty would develop into one of the league’s best defenders, culminating in 2016 by winning the Norris Trophy and being honored as a first team all-star.

Following the mid-season dismissal of Terry Murray, Sutter made an immediate impact, leading the Kings to a 25-13-11 record to make the playoffs. Sutter would be just one of six coaches in NHL history to take over a team mid-season and lead them to a Stanley Cup championship. In his 18th year, Sutter has won more than 600 games as a head coach.

2012: ROAD WARRIORS

2012: STANLEY CUP CHAMPIONS

In arguably the biggest moment in franchise history, the Kings won their first Stanley Cup championship on June 11, 2012. During Game 6 against the New Jersey Devils, the Kings tied a Stanley Cup record with three power play goals in the first period on their way to a decisive 6-1 victory. For the first time in the 45-year history of the franchise, captain Dustin Brown lifted the cup as Jonathan Quick won the Conn Smythe Trophy as playoff MVP. The Kings became the first eight-seed to win the Stanley Cup in playoff history.

2014: OUTDOOR CLASSIC

On January 16, 2014, the Kings hosted the Anaheim Ducks at iconic Dodger Stadium in front of nearly 55,000 fans. On a night Wayne Gretzky dropped the ceremonial puck and Bob Miller teamed up with Vin Scully to introduce the two teams. The Ducks outlasted the Kings 3-0 at Chavez Ravine. This would be the first of two stadium classics the Kings would play. In 2015, the Kings would battle the San Jose Sharks at Levi’s Stadium in Santa Clara.

GREATEST MOMENTS

2014: QUICK KEEPS WINNING

Jonathan Quick became the Kings all-time franchise leader in victories by a goalie on March 22, 2014. Recording the 30th shutout of his career in a 4-0 win over Florida, Quick earned career win 172. He broke the previous record of 171 wins held by Rogie Vachon. After the game, Vachon was waiting in the locker room to congratulate Quick on the franchise milestone.

2014: THE COMEBACK

The Kings became just the fourth team in Stanley Cup history to come back from a 3-0 series deficit to defeat the San Jose Sharks. On April 30, 2014, the Kings completed the ‘reverse sweep,’ defeating the Sharks 5-1 on the road in Game 7 to advance to the second round. During the series, Anze Kopitar became the first player in Kings history to record at least one point in all seven games of a series.

GREATEST MOMENTS

2014: GAME 7 MAGIC

The Kings became the first team in Stanley Cup playoff history to win three Game 7’s on the road in one year during the 2014 Stanley Cup run. After beating San Jose and Anaheim in seven games, the Kings set the record on June 1st when Alec Martinez scored the overtime winner against the Chicago Blackhawks to give the Kings the 5-4 win, punching their ticket to the Stanley Cup final for the second time in three years. Justin Williams continued his dominant play, nicknamed Mr. Game 7, with 14 points and a perfect 7-0 record when playing in Game 7’s in his career.

2014: KINGS SECOND CUP

On June 13, 2014, in the longest game in team history, Alec Martinez scored in double overtime against the New York Rangers to win the Stanley Cup. Martinez’s ‘Jazz Hands’ goes down as one of the best goal celebrations in team history as the Kings beat the Rangers 3-2 in Game 5 at Staples Center. Justin Williams won the Conn Smythe as playoff MVP and Dustin Brown lifted the Cup for the second time in three years.

2014: 2X CHAMPIONSHIP PARADES

For the second time in three years, the Kings celebrated with not one, but two parades in Los Angeles following the 2014 Stanley Cup Championship. The Kings would celebrate with a parade downtown featuring an estimated 300,000 fans. Two days later, the team would add a parade through the players home community of the South Bay. Set against the Pacific Ocean, the unique parade down ‘The Strand’ led to one of the most unique championship parades the NHL has seen.

2016: KINGS BRING HOME HARDWARE

On June 22, 2016 the Kings’ Drew Doughty and Anze Kopitar made a statement at the NHL awards in Las Vegas. Doughty became the second King to ever win the Norris Trophy given to the top defenseman in the NHL. He would also be named a first team All-Star and the first to make the team since Rob Blake in 1998. Meanwhile, Anze Kopitar would win the franchise’s first Selke Trophy for his defensive play, and become the fourth King to win the Lady Byng as a gentleman of the game.
