A fourth round draft choice of the Rangers in 2017, Brandon Crawley spent the majority of the 2019-20 campaign with the Maine Mariners of the ECHL while also skating in nine games with the Hartford Wolf Pack. He had skated the previous two seasons with Hartford. A native of nearby Glen Rock, NJ, Crawley amassed a plus-55 rating for the London Knights in 2016-17, which ranked fourth in the OHL. Crawley also helped the Knights win the Memorial Cup in the 2015-16 campaign.

LOOSE PUCKS

- Parents are Paul and Christine. Has a brother, Taylor
- Has three dogs: Fritz, Rusty and Molly
- Grew up a huge New York Yankees fan
- His first job was working as a hockey and skating coach at a summer camp at age 15.

---

ONE TIMERS

- Nickname: Crawls
- Greatest passion besides hockey: Fishing
- Talent he’d most like to have: Ability to jump really high
- Person he’d trade places with for a day: Derek Jeter
- Actor that would play him in a movie: Ashton Kutcher
- Favorite superhero: Incredible Hulk
- First jersey ever bought: Allen Iverson - black Sixers jersey
- On his bucket list: Visit the Grand Canyon
- Meal: Lasagna
- Movie: Step Brothers
- TV shows: The Office and The League
- Athlete he’d most like to practice with: Kobe Bryant
- Game show he’d most like to compete on: Are You Smarter Than A Fifth Grader?
- Most sentimental possession: “My grandfather’s watch.”