A second round draft choice of the Rangers in 2018, Olof Lindbom appeared in 16 games for Mora IK in Allsvenskan in 2019-20 and posted a 3.01 GAA and a .893 SV%. Lindbom spent the previous two seasons with Djurgardens’ junior U20 team in SuperElit. He helped Djurgardens’ U18 team win a gold medal in 2017-18 and was named the MVP of the Playoffs, as he posted a 1.20 GAA and a .955 SV% in five appearances.

Nicknames: Lindy, Henke

What he'd be doing for a career if not playing hockey: Working in hockey in some way

Superpower he'd most like to have: Ability to read minds

Person he'd trade places with for a day: My father

Actor that would play him in a movie: Leonardo DiCaprio

Favorite superhero: Batman

First jersey ever bought: Rangers jersey with his name on back

On his bucket list: Drive a ferrari

Collects: Pucks from all his shutouts

Meal: Pasta with meatballs

Book: “The Inside Mask”

Movie: The Dark Knight

TV show: Modern Family

Most sentimental possessions: Gold medal from U17 World Championship

Reality show he'd most like to compete on: The Titan Games

Athletes in another sport he'd like to practice with: Aaron Judge and Tom Brady

- Parents are Jesper and Malin. Has a brother, Carl. The family has a dog named Ensa
- Grew up a huge fan of the Rangers and his hockey idol Henrik Lundqvist. In fact, his nickname in pee wee hockey was “King Hank”
- His favorite non-hockey athlete is tennis star Rafael Nadal
- Played soccer and hockey as a kid
- His first job was coaching at a summer hockey school
- Enjoys listening to country music, especially Brett Young