A third round draft choice of the Rangers in 2018, Jacob Ragnarsson skated in 29 games for Timra IK in Allsvenskan in 2019-20, registering one goal and eight assists for nine points. He also appeared in four games for Rogle BK in the SHL. Ragnarsson spent the previous two seasons skating for Almtuna IS. In 2017-18, he led all players younger than 19 years old in games played (47) and also led all defensemen under 19 in goals (4), assists (9), and points (13).

One Timers

Greatest passion besides hockey: Golf
Superpower he’d most like to have: Ability to read minds
Person he’d trade places with for a day: Odell Beckham
Favorite superhero: Batman
On his bucket list: Go to the Super Bowl
Meal: Steak and french fries
TV show: Shooter

Loose Pucks

- Parents are Marcus and Eva. Marcus played in parts of nine NHL seasons with (1995-96 – 2003-04) the San Jose Sharks and Philadelphia Flyers
- Has a sister, Julia
- Lists Nicklas Lidstrom as his hockey idol
- Played floorball and soccer in high school, in addition to hockey
- Grew up a fan of Djurgarden Hockey
- Is an avid Philadelphia Eagles fan