A versatile forward, Ryan Strome has been a consistent contributor since being acquired in a trade with the Edmonton Oilers in 2018-19 and set career highs in points (59) and assists (41) in 2019-20. A first round draft choice (fifth selection overall) of the New York Islanders in 2011, Strome played in parts of six seasons with Edmonton and the Islanders prior to his arrival with the Blueshirts.

ONE TIMERS

Hockey nicknames: Stromer, Stromy
Greatest passion besides hockey: Golf
What he’d be doing for a career if not playing hockey: “Trying to be a pro golfer even though I’m not good enough.”
Person he’d trade places with for a day: Tiger Woods
Actor that would play him in a movie: Bradley Cooper
Favorite superhero: Spiderman
First jersey ever bought: Gary Roberts Leafs jersey
On his bucket list: Attend the Masters at Augusta
Collects: Golf balls from every course he’s ever played
Meal: Any Italian food
Books: Lone Survivor and American Sniper
Movie: Shawshank Redemption
TV shows: Game Of Thrones and The Office
Music: Country and Rap
NYC restaurant: Lavo
Funniest Ranger: Tony DeAngelo
Most sentimental possessions: “My dad has framed almost all of my jerseys and hockey accomplishments.”
Game show he’d like to compete on: Family Feud
Athletes in other sports he’d like to practice with: Tiger Woods and Kawhi Leonard

LOOSE PUCKS

- He and his wife, Sydney, have a daughter, Harper
- Ryan’s younger brother, Dylan, plays for the Chicago Blackhawks. His youngest brother, Matthew, was a fourth round draft choice of the Philadelphia Flyers in 2018
- Parents are Chris and Trish. Chris is an electrician and Trish works in insurance
- Has a yellow lab named Miller
- Grew up an avid fan of the Toronto Maple Leafs and Mats Sundin
- Played hockey and lacrosse in high school
- Says his personal “welcome to the NHL” moment was seeing his dad cry as he was leaving the team hotel to go to the rink for his first NHL game
- His first job was shooting pucks on goaltenders at a goalie school at age 13

STROME SURGE

Strome finished t-6th among NHL centers in 2019-20 in primary assists (27), t-12th in assists (41) and t-21st in points (59).

He was 1 of 3 NHL forwards this season to average at least 2:55 of PP ice time and at least 2:10 of SH ice time (Zibanejad and Marner).

Strome was 1 of 3 NHL centers in 2019-20 with 59+ points and at least a plus-21 rating (Couturier and Point).