Nicknames: Chicky, Chick, E
Gameday meal: Pasta with meatballs
Talent he'd most like to have: Photographic memory
Person he'd trade places with for a day: Drake
Most listened to artist: Drake
Actor that would play him in a movie: Sylvester Stallone
Favorite superhero: Superman
On his bucket list: Meet Tiger Woods and travel to Hawaii
Collects: Soccer jerseys
Other sport he'd like to play professionally: A striker for Juventus
Game show he'd like to compete on: Family Feud
Book: Guinness World Records
Movie: Kicking and Screaming
TV show: Sportscenter
Place to visit: Fort Lauderdale, Florida
People to follow on twitter: LeBron James and Kevin Hart
App: Snapchat

Parents are Michael and Rita. Michael is an insurance broker and Rita is a former teacher. Has two sisters, Cristina and Jacqueline.
His grandfather, Sam Ciccolini, is a former scout for the Rangers.
Plans on wearing #9 at Michigan to honor Gordie Howe who was a close family friend and would stay at his grandfather’s house whenever he came to Toronto.
Hobbies include ping pong and reading sports magazines.
The first jersey he ever bought was an Eric Lindros Toronto Maple Leafs sweater.
His favorite athletes to watch right now are Cristiano Ronaldo, Russell Westbrook and Tom Brady.
His favorite quote is “You miss 100 percent of the shots you don’t take.”